

BLESSED LIFE WEEK 4

Breaking The Spirit of Mammon| Week 4 | February 11, 2024

DISCUSSION GUIDE

#1 – Watch Teaching

#2 - Big Idea

You may've heard the saying "Money is the root of all evil". This is a misquote. The real Bible verse says "the LOVE of money is the root of all evil". Money shouldn't be demonized. It's only when we want money more than we want God that the spiritual influence of money darkens us. This effect has an ancient name: Mammon. Today we talk about how you can experience joy, peace and transformation with money and avoid the influence of mammon.

#3 - Sermon Points

1. What is mammon? Mammon is a spirit. (Mammon was an Assyrian false God. The Spirit of Mammon is a spirit that contrasts itself with the spirit of God. Mammon wants to rule our
2. Is money evil? (Money is not the root of all evil; rather, the Bible teaches that the LOVE of money is the root of all evil. Money is neutral.)
3. What do I do with my money? Be faithful with what you have.

#5 - Group Discussion Questions

1. What makes it hard to honor God with our money?
2. In what ways have you depended on money to provide peace instead of God?
3. What would your life look like if you no longer carried stress over money?
4. How can you see yourself managing money differently when you start to see it as a tool instead of a savior?
5. In what ways can you begin honoring God with your money this week?

#6 - Facilitator Wrap-Up

Let's end with prayer. You can say something like, "Father, thank you for giving us the ultimate gift. Please help us to honor you and find peace and provision in you and you alone. In Jesus' Name, Amen."
